(C) Disclosures pursuant to Rule 26(a)(1)(C).

Defendants are two weeks behind in payments. As to payments due to Plaintiff, these are based on Defendants' gross sales, which have not been provided to Plaintiff, and therefore, Plaintiff cannot calculate same. Using the payments made for the week of February 8, 2004 as a base, Defendants owed to Plaintiff approximately $700.00 for rent, $400.00 for royalties, $400.00 for supervisory fees, $200.00 for taxes and $300.00 in advertising fees. Actual amounts due will depend on the status of the account and an assessment is made. If possession is award to Plaintiff, no claim will be made for unpaid amount from the date the premise is turned over to until the intended expiration of the franchise agreement.

(D) Disclosure requirements pursuant to Rule 26(a)(1)(D) are not applicable.

Respectfully submitted,
Plaintiff,
Bowen Investment, Inc.
By its Attorneys,
